Subject: Application for Brother's Marriage Attendance

Respected Principal,

I am writing this letter to request your permission to attend my brother's wedding on [Date]. My family needs me to be present at this important event to support and celebrate with them.

I assure you that I will make up for the missed classes by studying extra hard and catching up on all the work I miss. I promise to take my studies seriously and not let this affect my academic performance.

I kindly request your approval for my leave of absence on the mentioned date. Your understanding and support in this matter would mean a lot to me and my family.

Thank you for considering my request.

Yours sincerely,
