Subject: Application for Cousin's Marriage Attendance to Reunite with Family

Respected Sir/Madam,

I am writing this letter to request your permission for me to attend my cousin's marriage ceremony. It is a special occasion where our entire family will come together to celebrate and spend time with each other. I believe this event will help me to bond with my family members and create wonderful memories.

I promise to make up for the missed classes by studying extra hard and catching up on any work that I may have missed. I understand the importance of my education, and I will ensure that my academic performance does not suffer due to this absence.

I kindly request your approval to attend this significant family event. Your support in this matter will mean a lot to me.

Thank you for considering my request.

Yours sincerely,
